about

At Chelsea Design Company, the designer's goal is to ensure the homeowner's needs are met and their character is rendered in every detail. They begin with a narrative; weaving the client's personalities with the age, history, and geography of the space. Every element sourced aligns with that design narrative and in the end, you are rewarded with a unique, purposeful, and cohesive dwelling. Their emphasis on strong, transparent relationships and an enjoyable design process is what keeps their clientele coming back year after year.
